ICICI Bank Limited - Operational execution propels business growth

ICICI Bank operates as a universal bank, providing a comprehensive range of banking and financial services to both retail and corporate clients. Its offerings include various deposit products, a diverse portfolio of loans (such as mortgages, vehicle loans, personal loans, credit cards, business banking, and corporate loans). The bank also extends its financial services through a network of subsidiaries specializing in areas like life insurance, general insurance, asset management, securities brokerage, and home finance. The business model emphasizes leveraging its extensive branch network and digital platforms for customer acquisition and service delivery.

- Blinkit added 243 new dark stores in Q1FY26, taking total store count to 1,544, targeting 2,000 stores by December 2025.
- Average monthly transacting customers in Quick Commerce surged 123% YoY.
- B2C Net Order Value (NOV) crossed Rs. 20,183cr, led by quick commerce expansion.
- Transitioning quick commerce business model from marketplace to 100% inventory ownership over next 2-3 quarters.

Outlook & Valuation

Eternal Limited is poised for strong multi-year revenue growth and margin expansion, underpinned by its dominant market positioning in Quick Commerce and Food Delivery. While store expansion front-loads operating costs in FY26, unit economics in mature cities (2.5%+ adjusted EBITDA margin) confirm long-term earnings trajectory. For FY26, top-line growth is projected at 73.0% YoY, reaching Rs. 35,020cr, before scaling to Rs. 54,632cr in FY27E.

We value Eternal Limited using a Price/Sales multiple on FY27E projections. Considering the stock's massive rally and current rich valuation metrics (FY26E P/E of 325.2x and EV/EBITDA of 240.3x), upside potential is constrained in the near term. We downgrade our rating to HOLD (from BUY) with a revised 12-month Target Price of Rs. 337 (based on 6.0x FY27E Price/Sales).
